Alfred Schweers, Jr., of Hondo, Texas,
was among the 753 ensigns commis-

Naval Reserve after completion of their three-months V-7 training course at the New York USNR Mid-

U. S. O. OFF TO GOOD START

An interested assemblage of Hondo people, on Monday night last at the Sons of Herman hall, listened attentively to Supervisor B. G. Powell of the U. S. O. and Dr. T. B. Knopp, local U. S. O. chairman, explain the purposes of the United Service Organization and the plans and hopes of the local unit.

Those who heard were deeply impressed with the importance of the work being undertaken, and brought to a realization that it will take earnest, conscientious work on the part of our entire citizenship to even approach its objectives. Heads of committees have been appointed and are busy completing their personnel and planning their activities. The public was urged to cooperate with these leaders and help in all possible practical ways. In achieving the desired goals there is work for all the idea sought to be impressed by the meeting.

NEWS NOTES From The Navigation School

Issued by the Special Service Office, AAFNS, Hondo, Texas.

COL. LINUS D. FREDERICK WILL TAKE COMMAND OF FIELD AT SAN ANGELO

Colonel Linus D. Frederick, commanding officer of the Army Air Forces Navigation School, Hondo, since July 1 will leave this week for Goodfellow Field, San Angelo, to assume command on Nov. 1.

Lorn in Abbott, Tex., Jan. 31, 1898, Col. Frederick first entered the Army Feb. 21, 1918, when he enlisted as a private in the 80th Company of the Coast Artillery. His rise from enlisted grades to commissioned ranks was rapid.

After serving in France in such famous actions as St. Mihiel, Meuse-Argonne and Chateau-Thierry, Frederick returned to the United States.
In 1920 he became a civil service employee at the San Antonio Air Depot until he enlisted as a flying cadet.
He was one of seven of the original class of 76 to complete the flying course and receive his wings
at Kelly Field.

After graduation, Lt. Frederick was placed in the Air Corps Reserve.
He became a civilian again, the second of three enlistments completed.
He made application for an appointment as an air mail pilot but he lacked the necessary flying hours to qualify.

He returned to San Antonio to enlist in the army for the third time.
Two years later he had advanced from corporal to master sergeant, the highest enlisted grade. In April, 1925, Frederick was commissioned a second lieutenant in the regular Army Air Corps. He was assigned to Brooks Field as a flying instructor.

His next assignment was at air corps technical school in Ratoul,
Ill. From there he went to Chanute
Field for four years.

In 1931 Frederick became a first lieutenant and was transferred to France Field in the Canal Zone and after three years there, he was assigned to Crissey Field in San Francisco. In 1936, he was promoted to the rank of Captain.

Capt. Frederick served at Ft. Lewis, Washington, and Washington, D.
C. Two years later he attended the Air Corps Tactical School, Maxwell
Field, Montgomery, Ala., and in 1940
he was ordered to Randolph Field.

There he was promoted to the rank of Major and transferred to Foster Field, Victoria, and later to Eagle Pass. His commission as colonel dates from March 1, 1942.

Col. and Mrs. Frederick have two sons, Ralph, 18, and Norman, 16.

DETROIT GRADUATION FLIGHT COMPLETED BY CADETS

Thirteen training planes from the AAF Navigation School last weekend made one of the longest graduation flights in the history of the school—from Hondo to Detroit, Mich., and return.

More than 70 pilots, co-pilots,
navigation instructors and cadets
were included in the flight personnel, under the direction of Capt.
Carl W. Barrow, flight leader.

The graduation flight, in which graduating cadets of Cadet Group 1
took the final test of their 15 weeks
of navigation training, left Hondo
Friday and landed at Romulus Air Base in Detroit Saturday.

Cadets who successfully completed
the requirements of the navigation training flight will be graduated Saturday, Nov. 7, awarded the silver wings of air forces navigators, and be commissioned as second lieutenants.

SGT. RATZ WILL ATTEND METEOROLOGICAL SCHOOL

Sergeant Roland L. Ratz, son of
Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Ratz, 334 Mc-Kinley Road, Detroit, has been appointed an aviation cadet and will attend the Army Air Forces Meteorological School at the University of California at Los Angeles. Sgt.
Ratz's wife, the former Miss Eleanor Leach of Pittsburgh, Pa., will accompany him to the West Coast.

An alumnus of the University of Pittsburgh where he studied petroleum engineering and of Wooster Tech
where he received a B. S. in mathematics and geology, Sgt. Ratz was inducted into the Army Air Forces
at Ft. Custer, Mich., on March 25, 1942.

At the AAF Gunnery School at Harlingen where he was an instructor in mathematics and physics, he received the rank of sergeant. Transferred to the AAF Navigation School at Hondo, he was assigned to the weather bureau.

Upon successful completion of his meteorological course, Sgt. Ratz will be a qualified weather observer and forecaster and will receive a second lieutenant's commission in the U. S.
Army Air Forces.

HONDO MAN CONTRIBUTES 1,350 GUN BARRELS TO CUR- RENT SCRAP DRIVE

Thirteen hundred and fifty old rifle barrels—2,000 pounds of gun metal collected during 40 years as a gunsmith in Hondo—were contributed to the scrap metal drive last week
by Charlie Gaines, Hondo gunsmith.

The gun barrels of many kinds,
many of which played an important part in the building of Texas from wild prairie, were added to the mounting pile of scrap metal at the C. and E. Salvage Warehouse at the AAF Navigation School.

The gun barrels have been patiently saved by Gaines, who, in his years
as a Hondo gunsmith, had replaced
them with new gun barrels,
the ton of old gun barrels brought the total scrap metal collected from Hondo and Medina county to 110 tons, Lt. Donald F. Halfpenny, post salvage and reclamation officer, announced.

In addition to the 110 tons of metal, 9,700 pounds of rubber, mostly old automobile tires, has been collected, Lt. Halfpenny said.

Meanwhile, the campaign to collect all salvageable scrap metal and rubber is being continued in Zavalla, Frio, and Bandera counties.

Trucks and men from the AAF Navigation School are assisting in the collection of the scrap.

CIVIL SERVICE WAR BOND CAM- PAIGN TO BEGIN

A campaign to buy U. S. war bonds will begin November 1 among all civil service employees of the AAF Navigation School, Capt. T. F.
Staudt, bonds and insurance officer,
has announced.

The campaign will continue until 90 percent of the civilian government employees have subscribed 10 percent of their earnings each payroll for the purchase of war bonds.
Less than 20 percent of the civil service employees are now buying war bonds.

To assist in the campaign, war
bond sales personnel have been appointed throughout the Navigation school. These assistants will aid in the subscription of bonds among the civil service workers in their respective departments.

A pamphlet of information regarding the campaign will be distributed soon to all post civil service employees.

Bonds may be purchased by the deduction of a monthly sum from each pay check. The plan under which the bonds are bought is known as the War Department Pay Reservation Plan for the Purchase of War Savings Bonds.

A similar campaign was conducted recently among the enlisted personnel of the field.

The list of war bond campaign
assistants, as announced by Capt.
Staudt, is as follows:

Alice B. Roberts, post headquarters; Eugene Evans, post printing; Jimmy Fidler, and Dr. Roger Burgess, metro dept.; Irma J. Bostic, post signal office; Minnie Bar-Boughton, post library; Nona M.
Knox, Helen E. Craig, Gwen Hungerford, Ila Kinzie, Maxine Spivey, and Frances Kivelehen, cadet detachment; Evelyn J. Munson, wing headquarters; Helen Robins, officer's personnel; Jack C. Lustre, civilian personnel; Adalyn Kalvort, post office;
Arthur O'Connell, T. J. A. office;
Vera Webb, group training office;
Othel D. Moss, Capt. Frame's office;
and Lillian G. Brucks, sergeant major's office.

defense counsel at the AAF Navigation School, has been transferred to the AAF Basic Flying School at Coffeyville, Kansas. He will be accompanied by his new assignment by his wife, the former Elizabeth Barber of Corpus Christi.

Lt. Erickson is a graduate of the University of Texas. In 1938 he was president of the Nueces County Bar Association, and was a prominent member of the Texas State Bar Association and the Masonic Lodge.

QUIHI NOTES

And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. Gen. 41:46.

Rather young for his position as prime minister for a great and cultured land. Another handicap in gaining the confidence of the people, "stiff in opinions, always in the wrong;" and if that is saying too much, in this case it seems to be a splendid chance for public criticism, to warp and twist matters and feed prejudice against the young official from the very beginning. Conceding that there are many positions in a commonwealth, where the enthusiasm, the ambition and idealism, the energy and forwardness of youth is much in need and could achieve more than the staid and stolid routine of some long-timers and mossbacks, yet in the competency of a prime minister, people insist, justly and most emphatically, on a man with political insight, mature judgment based on wide experience, and a pliability as well as firmness in critical decisions, gained only by a long and diversified career. In all this Joseph was woefully lacking. A mere wide-eyed fledgling, a raw recruit in an ill-fitting uniform, a babe in the woods, but he has the Lord on his side, and that tips the balance in his favor. Hamlet is quite right. There is a divinity that shapes our ends, rough hew them how we will. And Joseph did not do any rough hewing, he only waited for the hour of his Lord. It had arrived.

The court ceremonial is a past episode, with all the solemnity, the bows and smiles or secret frowns, the flattering, unctuous felicitations or whispered sarcasm. The public procession and reception in the streets, where the populace was hoarse with their hurrahs or vivas or some other Egyptian triumphant shout, usually a cheap gesture and easily had, the genuflections, as commanded, flag-waving, bouquet-throwing, and all the clamorous commotion, has died down to an ordinary workaday atmosphere. These public evolutions are, generally, but skin-deep, unless some coterie, speculating on political plums, rehab them in their fashionable salons and clubrooms, or the lower strata, in their dens and dives for their possible share.

But the country is larger than the capital city, though, then as now, it was the center for the complex, more or less glamorous array of high officials and military leaders, for busy politicians and lobbyists, press-corps and columnists, for high finance, scientists, industrial and labor leaders, for the personnel of high assemblies and courts, for G-men, seuths and high-soaring lawyers, and, lest we forget, for the elegance and extravagance of high-stepping society swirl of the elite, the upper-crust, within or without the embassies of foreign representatives. Yea, the capital might be the reflex, the cross-cut of the country, but it's not the country itself. And the people up and down the land demand recognition. They've heard plenty of rumors about the new man at the helm of statecraft. They must see him at close view. So Joseph went "throughout all the land", not to build or repair political fences, establish hearing-posts, contact stations and sub-agencies; the favor of the king spared him that trouble, but to gain the good will of the people for future operations, and to inspect the lay of the land, the resources, the groundwork for his immediate plans and calculations. A wise step in the right direction. The Lord and the king look for wide-awake, farsighted men.

More acclaim and many ovations, perhaps. More embarrassments for him and more sizing-up and conjectures by the public. So much in the new incumbent challenged the curiosity and closer scrutiny of the crowds. He simply did not tally with their traditional expectations. Will the new name, selected by the monarch, pave the way to the hearts of the citizens?

We have forgotten it. To refresh the memory, he is now Zaphnath-paaneah. Not a name loaded with high explosives, bristling with hissing, sizzling and swishing consonants where a sneeze seems to be chasing a cough and vice versa, as we often find it in foreign tongues even with primitive people, but the name marches stately, slowly, almost phlegmatically at ease, on sonorous vowels, yet hitting on all six cylinders.

ders or syllables. And the meaning? Man of the hour, savior of his age, savior of the world. Highly prophetic, indeed, for the king and his people, for God and the young official. An object-lesson for him who runs and reads.

Rain squalls and many deserted cornfields; cold spells with fast changing temperatures and sporadic cases of flu with similar reactions to follow, no doubt, yet at present we have only Mrs. W. Reizer on record as a patient. May she be up and about at this time.

Tire rationing, with gas rationing in the offing, aside from other rationings, will, unquestionably, retard or blast many plans for excursions and outings even for necessary trips and deliveries in city and farm life. They will also affect church activities, meetings and services in various degrees. We must accept them as emergency measures of importance and arrange things accordingly. Christians, however, will always find a way to carry on their Christian duties at home and in the house of God, in worship and otherwise. They know that life and subsistence depend on God, with all spiritual blessings, and they will not forfeit these blessings by setting Him and His work for the kingdom aside. He'll find a way out for them, if they care to appeal to Him.

A both surprising and pleasant visit we enjoyed when the Rev. P. Czerkus and his little family came upon our premises. The pastor formerly in charge of St. Paul's at Hondo, now at Rehburg, Texas, gave us fine glimpses of his new field where things are developing nicely under his care and able supervision. God's blessings upon them!

Washington Snapshots

by JAMES PRESTON

The White House is now the hub of our war economy. From it stems the new order of policy and action. The Chief Executive is in a position to accomplish many things without the consent of Congress and to put into force policies that, to date, Congress has refused to give him the power to do. One example is the limitation of $25,000 net upon individual incomes.

—WSS—
Excepting perhaps the Selective Service Act and the prospective labor draft by the War Manpower Commission, no government step has ever molded, so drastically, the future of the lives of American citizens. It is unlikely that any other government action will so change the destiny of individuals.

—WSS—
Much depends upon James F. Byrnes, Economic Stabilization Director, the man selected by Mr. Roosevelt to direct vast power. Mr. Byrnes can now say how much a man can earn, how much he can spend, what dividends corporations can pay and what profits they can earn. He wields power in the economic field comparable to that of Mr. Nelson, Director of the War Production Board, in the industrial field.

—WSS—
The following facts taken from Senator George's opening statement on the tax bill will be of interest to every American taxpayer. Work on the bill so far has taken more than seven months. There are 5,958 pages of testimony and the bill is 577 pages in length. With national income estimated at $110,000,000,000, federal taxes will amount to 20 billion. This, with state and local taxes, adds up to $36,537,000,000, or about one-third of the national income.

—WSS—
Highest taxes in World War I were $5,500,000,000 or about one-tenth of the peak income of around 56 billion. British taxes are $9,876,400,000. Canadian $1,567,000,000. Here corporations will pay 48.9 per cent of the income tax, while individuals pay 5.1 per cent. In England corporations pay 33 per cent while individuals pay 67.

—WSS—
Office of Defense Transportation officials hope that other states and cities will follow New Jersey's pattern in officially ordering schools, retail businesses, and several large offices to stagger their hours of work.

—WSS—
By withdrawing the United Mine Workers from the CIO, John L. Lewis has formalized his complete break with that organization "until such time as the CIO sees fit to correct its errors." This move, long anticipated, is expected to accelerate the Lewis campaign to form a new, huge third labor organization.

—WSS—
The Treasury has been advised to be ready with some sort of a sales tax proposal the next time it comes before the House Ways and Means Committee.

TO THE VOTERS OF COMMISSIONER PRE. NO. 2

H. J. BIPPERT.

THE WAR

A summary of the past week's war events reviewed by The National Editorial Association Defense Advisory Committee in cooperation with the Office of Government Reports.

OCTOBER 27, 1942

The Senate passed legislation to lower the draft age from 20 to 18. The Senate bill did not conform with the one passed earlier by the House, however, so the legislation was sent to conference to adjust the differences.

Educational deferments in the Senate bill would be limited to high school students in the last half of their academic year. The Senate bill would also defer farmers and farm labor from military service wherever their induction would curtail agricultural production, until replacements could be found. The bill would exempt men from selective induction after they have passed their forty-fifth birthdays.

The War Front

Five strong Japanese attempts to wipe out the American foothold on Guadalcanal Island have been beaten off by Marines and soldiers at a cost to the enemy of five tanks and heavy casualties, the Navy announced late October 25. Four attacks were launched during the night of October 23 and 24, paced by tanks and covered by a field artillery barrage, and the fifth attack was thrown back early the next morning. U. S. artillery, firing from emplacements in the dense jungle, were credited with a large share of the American success in the first real test of strength with the Japanese on the island. In fighting at sea and over land in the Solomons area between October 23-25, 21 Japanese aircraft were destroyed and three damaged, with the loss of one U. S. airplane. Earlier the Navy reported the destroyers O'Brien and Meredith were lost in the Solomons as a result of enemy action.

General MacArthur's headquarters in Australia announced October 26 that Allied planes operating from Australia in support of American forces in the Solomons have delivered another heavy blow to Japanese shipping in Rabaul Harbor, increasing their total sunk or damaged there to 100,000 tons in three days. A cruiser, destroyer and two cargo ships were believed definitely to have been sunk. Lt. Gen. Stilwell's Chinese headquarters reported American planes raided Hong Kong October 26 for the second time in two days and also dropped bombs on Japanese-held Canton.

U. S. Flying Fortresses destroyed nine German fighters in attacks on the Lorient submarine base and a Nazi airdrome near Cherbourg. Army air force headquarters in London announced. Three U. S. bombers were missing. The Navy announced the sinking of five more U. S. merchant vessels in the North Atlantic, four in July and one in September. U. S. naval forces again raided the Gilbert Islands, sinking two patrol boats and damaging two larger vessels.

Prisoners of War

Secretary of War Stimson told his press conference that names of four captured U. S. fliers claimed in Tokyo propaganda broadcasts correspond closely to the names of four missing men, but stated the War Department had no information that the Japanese were failing to abide by international law and the Geneva convention for the treatment of prisoners. Mr. Stimson said "some of the planes" in the raid on Tokyo "encountered bad weather after they left Japan and were forced off their course. One landed in Siberia. Several others made forced landings at night," but no American plane was shot down. He said, "A very few of the crews of these planes are carried on the list of missing. Some may have been forced down by the lack of gasoline in Japanese-controlled territory." Later the War Department announced the names of three other participants in the Tokyo raid "understood to be missing."

The Office of War Information said "secrecy was highly desirable in the hope of saving the lives and securing the freedom of certain crew members who crash in landed areas controlled by the enemy." Complete examination of the reasons for maintaining secrecy about the results of the raid cannot be made even yet, the OWI stated. Lives "of great value to the American cause" would be endangered by "the very explanation," the announcement said.

Rationing
Price Administrator Henderson ordered nationwide rationing of coffee, effective at midnight on November 28, on the basis of one pound each five weeks—about a cup a day—for all persons who were 15 years of age or older when they registered for sugar supplies on May 4-5. All retail sales of coffee will be frozen at midnight, November 21, for the week before rationing begins in order to permit merchants to stock their shelves. Consumers will not have to register to obtain coffee. They will use their sugar rationing book. To get the first coffee ration, the consumer will be required to surrender the last stamp—No. 28—in the sugar book. Subsequent rations of coffee will be on coupons taken in sequence toward the center of the book.

Rubber Director Jeffers reported chemists would develop "within five or six months" a 100 per cent synthetic tire good for all military and heavy truck duty, but such tires will be allotted for essential civilian driving only. The first large synthetic rubber plant will be opened at Institute, W. Va., sometime in December. "Sometime after mid-1943, we ought to have enough synthetic tires to make an appreciable difference in the situation regarding essential driving. Sometime in 1944, we ought to have enough to begin to furnish tires to civilians for family use," he said. Special gasoline rations will be available for motorists who are away from home when nationwide mileage rationing begins, and special allowances will be made for motorists who must move their cars "in the event of a bona fide change of residence," but not for moves from summer homes to winter homes. Secretary of Agriculture Wickard said meat consumption of 2½ pounds a week per person would mean considerably less meat for persons "who have always had comfortable incomes" and more meat "for people whose purchasing power has increased only recently."

Manpower and Production

Federal Works Administrator Fleming directed state administrators to re-interview and reclassify the 375,000 workers on WPA rolls with a view to expediting the program of putting qualified workers into war industry and farm jobs. The order will apply also to all those waiting assignment to WPA. Under Secretary of War Patterson reported 4,000 experienced miners of copper and other vitally needed metals are receiving Army furlough to relieve a labor shortage in that category. The men, who are being furloughed to the mines as civilians and who leave the Army on a volunteer basis, will be called back to active duty if they leave their jobs at the mines or if the need for them is eliminated, he said. War Secretary Stimson said the Army is studying a plan to return older soldiers to civilian life.

President Roosevelt told his press conference that the experiences of U. S. planes and tanks in actual combat have prompted a reduction in volume schedules in order to concentrate on heavier, more effective types of these war machines. While the number of tanks produced will be smaller than scheduled a year ago, the total production will have virtually the same weight, using the same steel tonnage as called for in the original, larger program. The President said the present program calls for fewer actual planes than planned a year ago, but that the decrease is being translated into more gun power, longer range and generally greater combat effectiveness.

Scrap Salvage

The current scrap drive has achieved "amazing results" and has raised steel production to 100 per cent, WPB Chairman Nelson reported. An order was issued by the WPB requiring more than 400 municipalities to use their regular trash collection equipment to collect and segregate scrap cans as part of a campaign to recover 1,000,000 tons of steel and 10,000 tons of pure tin from tin cans. The Board announced, "Hosiery that can be repaired or mended for further use is not being asked for by the government. Only after hosiery is discarded as being completely unusable should it be placed aside for salvage purposes."

JOE NAEGLIN DEAD

Joseph R. Naegelin of Castroville passed away Saturday, October 17, 1942, at the Santa Rosa hospital in San Antonio, following a brief illness. He was a native of Castroville and was 54 years old at the time of his death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 9:30 from the Tondre funeral home, followed by a requiem mass in St. Louis Church, with Rev. Dean J. Lenzen officiating. Burial was in St. Louis Cemetery.

Mr. Naegelin is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Annie Tschirhart and Mrs. Anton Kilhorn; and five brothers, Henry, William, August, John and Otto Naegelin. Many other relatives and friends mourn his passing.

LOCAL REA SYSTEM OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

The Medina Electric Cooperative, Hondo, this week enters its fourth year of service in bringing electricity to farmers and other rural consumers in this area.

Citing the growth and increasing financial stability of the Cooperative since its lines were first energized on October 21, 1939, Supt. Ted Bredthauer recalled that the system had only 219 consumers at the end of its first month of operation. Today the Cooperative furnishes electric service to 750 consumers along 465 miles of distribution lines in Medina, Frio, La Salle and Uvalde counties.

The Cooperative's revenue per mile has shown an appreciable gain since the first year of operation in spite of the building of 323 miles of lines and the addition of new consumers who use less electricity at first. Revenue per mile was $9.95 in July, 1942—an increase of 75 per cent since the first year. The average consumption per consumer has been 78 kilowatt hours per month during 1942.

The Cooperative's program got under way on March 11, 1939 when the REA allocated $101,000.00 of its first loan to the system. Construction started after a contract had been let on June 10, 1939, for the building of 129 miles of line at a cost of $65,786.00. REA has advanced the Cooperative a total of $330,900.00 on its construction allotments as of June 30, 1942.

Mr. Bredthauer said that farmers now receiving electric service from the Cooperative are able to produce more food with less labor. President Roosevelt, he said, recently stressed the value of farm electrification in a letter to REA Administrator Harry Slattery on the occasion of the REA's recent Seventh Birthday celebration in St. Louis. The President expressed gratification that nearly 1,000,000 farms and other rural consumers on REA-financed lines "are better able to make their maximum contribution to the war because they have electric power."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take these means to express our heartfelt thanks to all those who in any way assisted us during the last sickness and death of our beloved brother, Joe R. Naegelin. Our hearts were many and many a time made to melt in secret gratitude by the thoughtful deeds and kindly words of our friends. To all those who so lovingly remembered us, with deeds, with words, and with flowers, and to those contributing spiritual offerings, as our brother stepped from earthly walks to the invisible shore, to all those who are debtors in that sincere coin of gratitude and appreciation which we shall never be able to repay.

RADIO MECHANICS WANTED

AAF NAVIGATION SCHOOL, Hondo, Texas, Oct. 27.—Capt. E. G. McLemore, Technician Procurement Officer at the AAF Navigation School, Hondo, Texas, announced that the nationwide enlistment campaign for qualified radio men and mechanics will end on November 1st. After that date, there will be no further opportunity for men to enlist directly into the Army Air Forces.

Scores of qualified men and youths in this area who have failed to utilize the special privileges afforded by Army Air Forces enlistment letters given them by Technician Procurement Officers were advised by Capt. McLemore to contact recruiting offices at the earliest possible moment.

The letters were presented to qualified persons to assure them that they will be returned to the Army Air Forces stations at which they first made application for enlistment. Capt. McLemore emphasized that the letters entitle approved men to assignment to jobs for which they are suited.

Since the current drive terminates on November 1st, the letters will be invalid after that date. Consequently all mechanics and radio men who were presented with these letters should enlist now.

Complete information about the enlistment program may be obtained from Capt. E. G. McLemore, Technician Procurement Officer,

POST CHAPLAIN'S NOTES

By Lt. George W. Schardt, Post Chaplain

POST CHAPLAIN'S NOTES

Some time ago a mother wrote a letter to President Roosevelt. She wrote something like this, "I am sending you my son. I am glad to give him to my country. But I expect that my country surrounds him with the same ideals and principles with which I have surrounded him at home."

That mother, and all mothers like her, may well expect this of her government. The government tries its best to satisfy such mothers, and make them feel at ease not only by words but by action. I have mentioned before how our country is interested in the spiritual welfare of our boys and men by spending thousands of dollars for chapels and chaplains.

Akin to the spiritual is the moral side of man. Here also special efforts are being put forth to keep our men morally clean and fit. It is not only the government's desire to make good soldiers out of these men, but to return them, God willing, to their homes and loved ones just as strong and pure and noble as they were when they left to serve their country.

At regular intervals all service men must listen to a so-called "Sex Morality" lecture. Usually they sit for several hours listening to various men speak. Ordinarily there is a lecture by the Chaplain, the Medical Officer, and by some other officer who reads the articles of war.

As all of us know, and it has been thus in all wars and in all countries, a great curse of the soldier is sex immorality. It will always be thus to some extent because we live in a wicked world where human beings would rather satisfy their fleshly desires and lusts than do the Will of God and keep themselves "sanctified", set aside for the service of the Lord. Our human nature even from birth is inclined towards the evil rather than the good. This war between the flesh and the Spirit rages in every person's breast. Many by the help of God win the victory over temptations which would defile them and eventually destroy their body not only but also their soul. There are also many, and, Oh, too many, who as a matter of course choose the easier way of the sinful flesh.

Now let us not condemn the soldier unduly and hastily. After all, you and I have our own weaknesses and sins. Put yourself in his place, away from home, a stranger in a strange land, often no place to go, lonesome and discouraged. This is fertile soil for the snares of the wicked, and many fall.

Let us all work together on this problem, civilian communities and military posts. Diseases are caught usually off the Post, drunken servicemen are picked up usually off the Post. Where and how shall the soldier spend his leisure time? Let us keep our communities on a high standard, let us keep our places clean, and let us make it difficult for workers of evil to set up their dens near door to us. Above all, in the army and in civilian life let us lead souls of men and women to faith in God, and that will solve this problem.

Lessons we should seek to learn. Often vanish, if we spurn. Good advice that goes amiss. When we scorn it—such as this.

That is why we can't get by. By evading duties high. Ere the evening of our years. So we must repent in tears.

If we fail to plan ahead. Ways and means to buy our bread. So be wise lest fears would be. Wilful waste makes woeful waste.
